MESSAGE NOTES

3.27.22 | POWERFUL PRAYERS, Part 4: Break My Alabaster Box

I promise you, if you have faith inside of you no bigger than the size of a small mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, "Move away from here and go over there," and you will see it move! There is nothing you couldn't do!" Matthew 17:20b TPT

BREAKING INTO BLESSING

Now Jesus was in Bethany, in the home of Simon, a man Jesus had healed of leprosy. And as he was reclining at the table, a woman came into the house, with an alabaster flask filled with the highest quality of fragrant and expensive oil. She came to Jesus, and with a gesture of extreme devotion, she broke the flask and poured out the precious oil over his head. Mark 14:3 TPT

What did she do? She _____ and she _____.

As they were dining, Jesus took the bread and blessed it, and broke it, and gave it to his disciples. He said to them, "Receive this; it is my body." Then taking the cup of wine and giving thanks to the Father, he declared the new covenant with them. And as each one drank from the cup, he said to them, "This is my blood, which seals the new covenant poured out for many." Mark 14:22-24 TPT

What did Jesus do? He was _____ and _____ out.

And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, "This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood."
Luke 22:19-20 ESV

But I will rejoice even if my life is poured out like a liquid offering to God over your sacrificial and surrendered lives of faith. And so no matter what happens to me, you should rejoice in ecstatic celebration with me! Philippians 2:17-18 TPT

We may impress people with our _____, but we connect most deeply through our _____.

Afterward Simeon, a Jewish religious leader, asked Jesus to his home for dinner. Jesus accepted the invitation. When he went to Simeon's home, he took his place at the table.

In the neighborhood there was an immoral woman of the streets, known to all to be a prostitute. When she heard that Jesus was at Simeon's house, she took an exquisite flask made from alabaster, filled it with the most expensive perfume, went right into the home of the Jewish religious leader, and in front of all the guests, she knelt at the feet of Jesus. Broken and weeping, she covered his feet with the tears that fell from her face. She kept crying and drying his feet with her long hair. Over and over she kissed Jesus' feet. Then, as an act of worship, she opened her flask and anointed his feet with her costly perfume. Luke 7:36-38 TPT
