MESSAGE NOTES

5.7.23 | THE COMEBACK, Part 9: The Tale of Two Mountains

THE UP-AND-DOWN JOURNEY OF MOSES

Now faith brings our hopes into reality and becomes the foundation needed to acquire the things we long for. It is all the evidence required to prove what is still unseen." Hebrews 11:1 TPT

- We have a promise that Jesus is going to _____ the work that He _____ in us.
- Faith is an _____ element in our comeback story. It is thinking about what God has _____ more than what we see with our own eyes.
- What are we hoping for? Faith is being _____ of what we're _____ for.

This testimony of faith is what previous generations were commended for. Hebrews 11:2 TPT

Faith prompted the parents of Moses at his birth to hide him for three months because they realized their child was exceptional, and they refused to be afraid of the king's edict.

Faith enabled Moses to choose God's will, for although he was raised as the son of Pharaoh's daughter, he refused to make that his identity, choosing instead to suffer mistreatment with the people of God. Moses preferred faith's certainty above the momentary enjoyment of sin's pleasures. He found his true wealth in suffering abuse for being anointed, more than in anything the world could offer him, for his eyes looked with wonder not on the immediate but on the ultimate—faith's great reward! Holding faith's promise, Moses abandoned Egypt and had no fear of Pharaoh's rage because he persisted in faith as if he had seen God, who is unseen.

Faith stirred Moses to perform the rite of Passover and sprinkle lamb's blood to prevent the destroyer from harming their firstborn.

Faith opened the way for the Hebrews to cross the Red Sea as if on dry land, but when the Egyptians tried to cross, they were swallowed up and drowned! Hebrews 11:23-29 TPT

THREE LIES OF THE ENEMY

1. You _____ come back.
2. Your comeback is not real. The enemy will say this when there are _____.
3. You can only get a _____ comeback.
- God is calling you up to a place of _____.

Faith provided a way of escape for Rahab the prostitute, avoiding the destruction of the unbelievers, because she received the Hebrew spies in peace. Hebrews 11:31 TPT

A SETBACK IS A SEEDBED FOR YOUR COMEBACK

As for us, we have all of these great witnesses who encircle us like clouds. So we must let go of every wound that has pierced us and the sin we so easily fall into. Then we will be able to run life's marathon race with passion and determination, for the path has been already marked out before us.

We look away from the natural realm, and we focus our attention and expectation onto Jesus, who birthed faith within us and who leads us forward into faith's perfection. His example is this: Because his heart was focused on the joy of knowing that you would be his, he endured the agony of the cross and conquered its humiliation and now sits exalted at the right hand of the throne of God! Hebrews 12:1-2 TPT

1. Cut ties with the _____ in your life.
2. Run the _____ that God has given you to run.
3. Set your _____ on Jesus.
